

Cybersecurity

Western NARUC – June 2015

John Marinho

Vice President, Technology and Cybersecurity

CTIA – The Wireless Association®

CTIA – The Wireless Association®

CTIA is an international, nonprofit membership organization representing all sectors of wireless communications, including:

- Service providers
- Manufacturers
- Wireless data and internet companies

Learn more at www.ctia.org.

NIST National Cybersecurity Framework (CSF)

- Presidential Executive Order Feb 2013
- Public-Private Partnership DHS and NIST
- 16 Critical Infrastructure Sectors
- Completed February 2014
- FCC Engagement through CSRIC* IV Working Group 4
  - Telecom Sector application of the CSF

*Note: Communications Security, Reliability & Interoperability Council (CSRIC) – Federal Advisory Committee under FACA

NIST National Cybersecurity Framework (CSF)

- Flexible & Comprehensive
  - Set of Functions, Categories and Subcategories
  - Non-Regulatory Industry Lead Framework
  - Scale from Large, Medium to Small Orgs.
  - Global Standards & Industry Practices
- CSRIC IV Report embodies the CSF for Telecom

State Engagement

- CSRIC IV Report unquestionably advances the Nation's and State cybersecurity goals for critical infrastructure
- “New Paradigm”: Voluntary, Non-Regulatory mechanisms based on set of “ground rules” to ensure productive and protected information sharing
- Common Framework and Lexicon to address Threat Landscape
- CTIA and its members committed to cybersecurity in today's dynamic threat environment
  - Network Availability Key Assurance

Contact Information

- John Marinho

Vice President, Technology and Cybersecurity

– JMarinho@ctia.org

– 202-736-3680